Pressemeddelelse

Rederichef starter egen shipping virksomhed

Staureby Shipping er et nyetableret shipping firma med fokus på befragtning og ship-management.

Jørn Staureby, der er direktør i firmaet, har været rederichef i Rederiet Otto Danielsen i 15 år, var tidligere befragtningschef i Elite-Shipping i 19 år, og er dermed en shippingmand med lang erfaring inden for befragtning af tørlast- og multipurpose skibe og rederidrift.

Staureby Shipping skal vokse på baggrund af gamle dyder som ordholdenhed og sober rådgivning, og jeg glæder mig til at kunne tilbyde befragtning og shipmanagement og at udvikle skibsprojekter for investorer siger Jørn Staureby.

Press release

Fleet Manager establishes own shipping company

Staureby Shipping is a new company based in Copenhagen with a focus on chartering and ship-management.

Jørn Staureby, who is the founder and director of the company, has been the Fleet Manager of Rederiet Otto Danielsen for 15 years, and prior to that was Chartering Manager with Elite-Shipping for 19 years, and consequently has a very long experience in dry cargo and multipurpose chartering and ship-management.

Staureby Shipping intends to grow on the basis of old-fashioned values such as honesty, responsibly minded consulting and advise.

Jørn Staureby says that he embraces the challenge of offering chartering and ship management, and to developing new shipping projects for investors.
